A Day with My Best Friend

Last Saturday, I met my best friend, Laura, at the park. We sat under a big tree and spoke about our week. She brought her guitar and played some songs while I sang with her. After that, we went to a small café near the river. I drank hot chocolate, and she had a strawberry milkshake. We took some photos and laughed a lot. In the afternoon, we walked home together and saw a rainbow in the sky. It was a simple day, but we both felt really happy because true friends always make everything better.
