On November first, María's family celebrates All Saints' Day in Guatemala. In the morning, they go to the cemetery at 9 o'clock. During the visit, they clean the graves and leave flowers. After that, they go home to cook fiambre. They eat lunch at 1 o'clock and rest in the afternoon. Before dinner, they watch the big kites in the sky. At night, they talk and remember their loved ones. It is a special day for the family
